

The South Australian Rock-climbing Education Association (SAREA) appreciates that commercial and personal support are a valuable contribution to SAREA's ability to support rock climbing education in South Australia.

Some supporters can provide more support than others, and all support is gratefully received. These guidelines aim to provide fair recognition to all supporters.

Financial support from organisations and individuals may be used for the following purposes:

1. Training for rock climbing guides and instructors.
2. Professional development events.
3. Organisation Insurance.
4. Advocacy for rock climbing education.
5. Working with landowners and land managers on access to climbing areas.
6. Maintenance of SAREA website.
7. Other activities that support rock climbing education.

SAREA applies the following principles to Supporter acknowledgement:

1. It is a priority of SAREA to acknowledge support.
2. The benefits for each Supporter level are transparent.
3. Support provided in any year receives acknowledgement until the end of following year.
4. Payment can be in-kind, direct remuneration or a combination.
